A Little of Everything.

Time is an arrant thief, my son. Who steals our blessings, one by one. He steals our teeth, he steals our hair. And leaves our old pates bald and bare. He steals the bloom from off the cheek. And gives to some a crimson streak. He steals the lustre from the eye. He steals our friends, who droop and die. He steals our youth, he steals our strength. And steals our very life at length. Yet all these blessings Time doth give. For we must all have Time to live. —Punxsutawney Spirit.

No paper next week. Next Tuesday we celebrate. Correctly cut clothes at Seeley's. For Korrek shapes in shoes go to Robinson's. The steam laundry will be started next Monday. "Dot Leedle German Band" was in town Monday. Found—A lady's black kid glove. Inquire at this office. The Reynoldsville creamery has been shut down indefinitely. The postoffice at Big Soldier will be opened the first of July. You can't break your bike so bad Hoffman can't repair it. Don't miss the concert in Presbyterian church Saturday evening. For a serviceable and up-to-date spring suit, buy it from Millirens. The Democratic primaries will be held in Jefferson county Saturday. The Columbia chainless is the only bicycle having 1899 improvements. Don't go away from Reynoldsville July 4th if you want to have a good time. There will be more light in the post-office hereafter. A skylight has been put in. J. B. Stewart, Esq., and Miss Maud Paddock, both of Brookville, were married June 21st. Street Commissioner Robert Williams is doing good work on Pike street, West Reynoldsville. Constable P. J. Ward arrested a young man Saturday night for committing a criminal offense. Frank S. Hoffman, the butcher, stepped on a rusty nail several days ago and now limps around on his right heel. Elsewhere in this issue of THE STAR will be found an advertisement of the amusements to be given at DuBois July 4th and 5th. The lawn fete given at the residence of Alex Riston last evening by Christian Endeavor Society of Presbyterian church, was well patronized. Jacob and Henry Deible are filling in and grading in front of their property on Main street, between Hotel Belpap and Tapper's livery stable. Milo Hagerty, grand-daughter of Mrs. J. T. Coax of Valley Home, died at Newark, N. J., the first of this week with consumption. She was 26 years old. The Modern Woodmen is the name of an insurance order organized in Bell's hall last evening. Fred S. Raught, deputy organizer, has been in town a few weeks working up the order. The newly elected officers in the Epworth League will be installed this evening. This will be the first time the ritual installation ceremonies have been used at this place. Everybody welcome.

The Reynoldsville ball team will play at Punxsutawney in the forenoon of July 4th and will play the Brookwayville team on the Reynoldsville grounds the afternoon of July 4th.

The Prohibitionist of Jefferson county will hold a convention in Hildebrand hall, Falls Creek, on Friday afternoon of this week, at which time candidates for the various county offices will be nominated.

The Nonpareil ball club of this place went to Brookwayville last Friday and played the club at that place. Brookwayville has a good ball team, but the Nonpareils were too much for them. The score was 9-5 in favor of Reynoldsville boys.

The lawn fete which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Julia Riston on the evening of June 20th, but was postponed indefinitely, will be held at the same place on the evening of July 4th. Ice cream, sherbet, coffee and cake will be served.

Grand vocal concert, with dramatic readings, in the Presbyterian church on Saturday evening, July 1st, by the Orpheus Sextet, composed of six Blackwood sisters of Pittsburg. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Doors open at 7:30, performance at 8:00 P. M.

"Where to stop at Chautauqua Lake," is the title of a beautifully illustrated booklet received at THE STAR office several days ago with the compliments of the Allegheny Valley Railway, which, by the way, is a good route form this section to Chautauqua Lake.

Ex-postmaster E. T. McGaw, of this place, who had announced himself as a Democratic candidate for the nomination for county commissioner, has withdrawn from the field. Mr. McGaw claimed there were too many candidates for the nomination and hence his withdrawal.

The Altar Society of the Catholic church was to have held a lawn fete on Father Brndy's lawn Saturday evening, but on account of the inclement weather the ladies sold ice cream, cake, &c., in basement of Catholic church that evening and held the lawn fete Monday evening.

The Allegheny Valley Railway Co. will sell excursion tickets to all points on that road July 3rd and 4th at rate of one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be good returning on the 5th. No excursion rates for adults will be made less than 25 cents or for children less than 15 cents.

The following persons of this place will go to Detroit, Mich., next week to attend the International Convention of Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor: Belle Arnold, Ella Seeley, Inez Brown, Georgie Corbett, Frank P. Alexander, Thomas F. Adams and Rev. W. Frank Reber.

Dr. S. M. Gordon, pastor of the Brookville M. E. church, met with an accident while riding through Reynoldsville last evening on his bicycle. The forks of the bicycle broke off, throwing the preacher on his head and shoulders on Main street, near the Presbyterian church. He was able to go home on the evening train.

John M. Carroll, who was manager of the Jefferson Supply Co. store at Big Soldier, has resigned that position and gone to New York city. During Mr. Carroll's stay in this place he made a number of friends who were sorry to see him leave. Harry Murray, a brother of Dr. J. H. Murray, will take Mr. Carroll's place as manager of the store at Big Soldier.

For the benefit of those who wish to attend the re-union of the Order of Red men at DuBois, Friday, June 30th, excursion tickets will be issued to DuBois and return for regular trains on above date limited for return passage until July 1st, 1899, inclusive, at rate of fare and one third for the round trip, except that no ticket at the reduced rate will be sold for less than 25 cents.

A new schedule goes into effect on the A. V. Ry next Sunday. The only change in time of passenger trains at this place will be on train No. 2, which will arrive here at 1:37 instead of 1:40 p. m., and will get to Red Bank fifteen minutes sooner than it does on the present schedule. With this new schedule some very fast trains will be put on the main line between Pittsburg and Oil City.

The James L. Burns Lodge, No. 566, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, of this place, and the Mahoning Lodge No. 462, B. R. T., of Punxsutawney, played a five inning game of base ball on the Punxsutawney grounds Saturday afternoon. The railway boys from this place defeated the Punx's boys. Score 5-3. A return game will be played on the Reynoldsville grounds Saturday afternoon.

Joseph Shaffer, the Adams Express agent, drove his team to the silk mill Saturday and when backing up to the platform at mill one of the straps on the neckyoke broke, allowing the tongue of the wagon to drop to the ground, and as it was on a grade the wagon ran on to the horses' heels and frightened them and they ran away again. The express wagon was considerably damaged. Mr. Shaffer was thrown out of the wagon but escaped with a few bruises.

Bloomington Miners Out.
The miners at Bloomington mine, near Rathmel, quit work yesterday morning. The coal that has been shipped over the R. & F. C. Ry since the strike of the J. & C. C. & I. Co. miners was taken out of the Bloomington mines.

No Paper Next Week.
In order to give the printers a short rest from their arduous work and a few days of recreation, THE STAR will not be published next week. The office will be open to do job work and to receive money on back subscriptions or to receive new subscriptions.

Another Break Down.
Another break down occurred at the Hopkins saw mill near this place last week, which made it necessary to shut down part of the mill until after the Fourth of July. This seems to be a year for break downs at that mill, as this makes the fourth break down this season.

Challenge will be Accepted.
The manager of the Curwensville ball club has challenged the Reynoldsville club to play a game for from $100.00 to $300.00. Manager O'Hare, of the home team, has notified the Curwensville manager that he is willing to put up forfeit money. The game to be played any time after July 7th.

Policeman John Cottle.
At the meeting of town council last week John Cottle was appointed policeman and night watchman. We believe that Mr. Cottle will make a good policeman. He is about the regulation size, two hundred and ten pounds, and ought to be able to handle most any obstreperous fellow. Mr. Cottle is to wear the police uniform.

Recommended for Tax Collector.
The town council has recommended George W. Swartz to the court to be appointed as tax collector in this borough to fill the vacancy caused by W. T. Cox not accepting the tax collectorship this year. Last Saturday evening the school board elected Mr. Swartz treasurer of the school fund for the ensuing year.

Branch Railroad.
Alex Patton, of Curwensville, has the contract to build the three mile branch of the Reynoldsville & Falls Creek Ry from this place to a point near Hopkins mill. There will be two railroad bridges to build, one near the ball grounds and the other one near the A. V. Ry No. 1 bridge. The work of grading was begun the latter part of last week. It is presumed that this branch is being built to open a new field.

Will Build a Chapel.
At a congregational meeting last Wednesday evening it was decided to build a chapel on to the Presbyterian church. It will be built on the west side of the church. The chapel will be 33x47 feet, divided into three departments, a lecture room, infant department and ladies' parlor. There will be a front and rear entrance to chapel. There will be rolling doors between the chapel and main auditorium of the church. The chapel will be built of brick and will be a very pretty edifice, both inside and outside.

Business of School Board.
At a meeting of the borough school board last Wednesday evening eleven teachers were elected and some other business transacted. The teachers elected are as follows: Myrtle Geist, Mary Patton, Julia Kirk, Maggie Butler, Florence Hayes, Anna Kunes, Nellie Dougherty, Susie Schultze, Olie Ross, Lulu Black and Fred Booth. The board decided to open another room this year, making thirteen rooms. The assistant principal and one more teacher will be elected at the regular meeting next Monday evening. The following millage was laid: school 6 mills, bond 34 mills.

Will Picnic in Frank's Park.
The Jefferson County Medical Society met at Hotel McConnell last Friday. There was a good attendance. Pneumonia was the topic for discussion at this meeting. Before adjourning it was decided to hold the annual picnic of the society in Frank's Park, Reynoldsville, on the last Friday in July. The doctors held their annual picnic in Frank's Park last year and were so well pleased with the convenience of the park that they decided to come again. The large pavilion, well equipped kitchen, town water, patent swings and grand stand makes Frank's park a delightful place for a picnic.

Family Reunion.
The descendants of Andrew Moore, who was born in Ireland and immigrated to this country with his parents when 13 years old, will hold a reunion at the home of Manfred M. Moore, a grandson, near this place to-morrow. Some years ago Andrew Moore, at the age of 90 odd years, passed from this life, but his eight children survive him and all expect to attend the reunion to-morrow. They are as follows: James Lindsey Moore, of Washington township, who is over 80 years old, Miles Moore, of Warsaw, Mrs. Mary Ann Stewart and Mrs. Frances Best, both of this place, Mrs. Nancy Gaub, of Perysville, Andrew and Jacob Moore, of Warsaw, and David Moore, of Washington township.

We Will Celebrate.
Following is the program and list of prizes for the celebration to be held at Reynoldsville next Tuesday, July 4th: 9:00 a. m.—Parade. Form on Fourth street. March down Main to bridge, counter march up Main to Tenth, down Tenth and return by Jackson street. $20.00 in gold for the out of town society having largest number in line. Not less than $25 members to be in line. 10:30 a. m.—Bicycle handicap race. 1st prize, $5.00; 2nd prize, $4.00. 11:00 a. m.—150-yard foot race. 1st prize, $5.00; 2nd prize, $2.00. 1:15 p. m.—50-yard potato race; potatoes to be one yard apart. First prize, $7.00; second prize, $2.00. 2:00 p. m.—Ladies' bicycle race. Down Main street from Seventh to Third street. First prize, $5.00; second prize, $2.00. 2:15 p. m.—Seventy-five yard sack race. First prize, $3.00; second prize, $2.00. 2:45 p. m.—Wheelbarrow race. First prize, $3.00; second prize, $2.00. 3:00 p. m.—Ball game. Fireworks on ball ground in the evening. Music by the famous Keystone band under the leadership of Richard Ramsey. Persons competing for prizes must give their names to Edwin Hoare on or before hour of races. Platform dance in Frank's Park on evening of July 3rd, and afternoon and evening of the 4th. Refreshments will be served on the grounds. Excursion rates on all roads.

Mysterious Accident.
Samuel Murray, engineer of the dinky engine on P. McDonald's log road near Falls Creek, met with a very mysterious accident Monday morning, which might have resulted in great damage to railroad property at Falls Creek. Mr. Murray started from camp, two miles in the woods, on the engine to carry mail to Falls Creek and get some supplies. He was found on his engine in the Allegheny Valley yards in an unconscious condition with three deep cuts on his head. Yesterday at noon the man was still unconscious and the accident remains a mystery. It looks very much as if some person or persons had attacked Murray at the water plug in the woods, and to cover up what had the indications of being murder, the engineer was put on the engine and it was started towards Falls Creek with the expectation of a wreck when the engine reached the P. R. R. switch. It happened that all the switches the engine ran over were the kind that an engine can turn over one way and the dinky struck them all the right way. The engine ran down the log road, out on P. R. R. track, down that to Falls Creek and on to an A. V. Ry siding where it ran into some cars and there it stopped. The engineer was found sitting at his proper position in the cab, with his right arm out over the arm-rest so he could not fall off, although he was as helpless as a dead man.

Express Howls.
The DuBois Express gave Empire Copping quite a "roasting" for his decisions in the game of base ball between Reynoldsville and Curwensville teams on the grounds at this place Thursday afternoon. Mr. Copping has the reputation of being an impartial and honest umpire, and although his decisions may not always be such as outsiders may think they ought to be, from their point of view, yet we believe Mr. Copping gives what he considers the right thing at all times. There were a number of "rooters" from DuBois, and no doubt the editor of the Express was one of them, who did more kicking than the Curwensville boys did, and had it not been for the DuBois kickers, the game would have been played to the finish. In the last half of the sixth inning a Curwensville batter knocked a foul ball to first base and because the umpire called it a foul, the "rooters," some of whom had money up on the Curwensville team, howled "rotten," "rotten," and insisted on the visiting club not to accept the decision of the umpire, and there is where the game ended. Some of our reliable citizens were near the first base and they claim that the ball struck outside the foul line. At the end of the fifth inning the score was 6-4 in favor of Reynoldsville. Had it not been for the presence of Sheriff Burns there would have been a "scrap," which some of the DuBois "rooters" seemed anxious for.

Dividend Declared.
At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Silk Co. a semi-annual dividend was declared on the preferred stock of the company, for the period ending June 30th, 1899, at the rate of 7 per cent per annum. Dividend checks will be mailed to the stock holders of record. JOS. W. PLACE, Treas.

Card of Thanks.
We hereby give expression of our gratitude and appreciation for the kindness shown by our friends and neighbors during the illness and after the death of our husband and father. MRS. S. V. SHICK AND FAMILY.

Miners Paid in Full.
The Jefferson & Clearfield Coal & Iron Company paid the miners at this place in full last Thursday. There is no change in the strike situation here.

Lawyers' Vacation.
The lawyers of Jefferson county are now taking their annual summer vacation, beginning Monday of this week and lasting until the 24th of July. During this vacation period the law offices of this and other towns in the county will not be open for legal business.

Low prices is what makes the clothing, hats and furnishing at Millirens so famous.
Call and see the fibre telescopes and suit cases at Seeley's. Come and see the only Columbia chainless bicycle at Stoke's. Buy a pair of low shoes and rest your feet, the kind that are easy; Robinson's. Two trade pulling shoes, Walk Over and Phit Easi, at Robinson's. The only bicycle shop in town equipped for doing all kinds of work is at C. F. Hoffman's.

DEATH OF S. V. SHICK.
A Busy Life Ended by Consumption—Buried at Worthville.
Samuel V. Shick, one of the prominent dry goods merchants of Reynoldsville, departed this life at 6:30 A. M. on Thursday of last week, June 22nd. Consumption was the cause of his demise. Mr. Shick was born at Langville, Jefferson county, July 21st, 1856, making him almost 43 years old at time of death. His parents moved to Ringgold when he was a lad and it was at that place he was reared to manhood. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shick. His mother preceded him some years ago to the Beautiful City. May 23rd, 1879, Mr. Shick was married to Miss Malinda Wagner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wagner, at Worthville, Pa. The wife and two daughters, Mrs. Eva V. Butler, of Tyler, and Miss Kittie Irene Shick, of this place, survive the deceased. Twelve years ago Mr. Shick moved to Iowa Mills, Pa., to accept a position as general manager of A. D. Deemer's store and business affairs at that place. He remained at Iowa Mills until four years ago the first of this year when he moved to Reynoldsville and opened a large dry goods store under the firm name of A. D. Deemer & Co. This partnership was continued until a few months ago when A. D. Deemer sold out to J. H. Wagner, Mr. Shick's brother-in-law, and the business is now being conducted under the firm name of Shick & Wagner. Mr. Shick was very industrious and never neglected his business. Although a sufferer for years, yet he was always pleasant and was successful in winning many friends during his business career in Reynoldsville. Sixteen years ago Mr. Shick joined the Evangelical church at Worthville and after moving to Iowa Mills he joined the M. E. church at Emerickville under the pastorate of Rev. James Jelbart. On account of ill health he did not attend religious services frequently after coming to Reynoldsville, but he kept in touch with the church and his last days of earthly existence were peaceful and happy. Death had no terrors for him. He was ready to depart from this life. His only regret was to leave his family. He was conscious up to the last and peacefully fell asleep "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" of the Savior. Thus ended the life of a good business man, a kind husband and a loving and indulgent father. Mr. Shick was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge at Worthville. The pallbearers were members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of this place, as follows: A. G. Milliken, A. H. Hoon, L. G. Lidle, Richard Jennings, Thomas Davidson, Josiah Deter. Funeral services were held at the family residence on Main street at 7:00 P. M. Friday, conducted by Rev. J. H. Jelbart, of Johnsonburg, assisted by Dr. C. C. Rumberger, pastor of the M. E. church, and Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church. An exemplary life had just ended and Rev. Jelbart had no difficulty in finding an appropriate text for the occasion. His sermon was full of comfort and beautiful thoughts. A large number of friends and neighbors assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. At 4:00 A. M. Saturday the body of Mr. Shick was taken from this place to Worthville where funeral services were held in the Reformed church, conducted by Rev. Jelbart, assisted by Rev. J. C. McEntire and Rev. D. W. Kerr, after which the mortal remains of Samuel Shick were placed beneath the sod in the Worthville cemetery.

Death of Loyer Trouble.
John Northy, of Rathmel, brother of our townsmen, William Northy, died at his home in Rathmel at 6:00 P. M. Saturday, June 24th, from liver trouble. Mr. Northy had been ill six months. He was in Philadelphia a few weeks ago, but his case seemed to be beyond medical aid. The deceased was born in England 41 years ago last March. He came to America the first time in 1882. After remaining in this country a few years he returned to the land of his nativity and after a short stay there he returned to this country the second time. The deceased was a member of the Sons of St. George and the Knights of Golden Eagle, of this place, and both lodges attended the funeral in a body. Funeral services were held in the Rathmel M. E. church Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. O. H. Sibley, pastor of the deceased. Remains were buried in Boulah cemetery. Mr. Northy leaves a widow and five children.

Don't Fail to Hear Them.
The Pittsburg Commercial Gazette says of the Blackwood sisters: "They are a superb combination of musical and reading talent. It is the only sextet of sisters in the country. The six voices are well trained and the audience was taken from the start and held to the close. Each sister is a master reader and the two sketches given by the six took the house by storm." This sextet will be in Presbyterian church Saturday evening, July 1st. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Proceeds for benefit of the chapel fund. Do not fail to hear them.
